

Love is where you are

Lauren and Gabriel are two successful elementary teachers. She is from the US and he is from Venezuela. Even though both countries are in the American continent they have different cultures. Lauren has always dreamed with an elegant wedding, something like a “Disney Princess Fairytale”. Her favorite color is purple so the design of the wedding is based on that color and also callas and roses, her favorite flowers. Although she wanted luxury, she chose to combined elegance and simplicity to honor Gabriel’s wishes, who is very simple, so silver is the color to highlight the beauty of this wedding, happens to be Gabriel’s favorite color.

The design and décor is made to look elegant and simple at the same time. I chose candle lights, chandeliers and purple lightnings to ensure a romantic environment. The aisle is decorated with white roses and purple fairy lights.

The wedding will be held in Venezuela at one of the best hotels with the magnificent “Avila” behind us; a romantic and breathtaking view will be part of the photoshooting combined with the most beautiful birds that live along all the city.

The bride will wear a white empire line sleeveless dress with silver lace; her hairstyle will have baby’s breath décor and her bouquet will be made with purple and white roses along with silver pearls and appliances. The maid of honor will wear a dark purple empire dress while the bridesmaids will be light purple. Their bouquets will be white callas with purple. The groom will wear a black tuxedo and the groomsmen tuxedo will be gray. Their boutonnieres are going to be the same as the bridesmais boquets, white and purple callas.

The centerpieces and other stationary will be made of candles and flowers, combining purple, silver and white. The guest book will be made of polaroid photos with messages for the newlyweds. The chairs will be drapped with purple tull to give a balance with the silver and purple tablecloths. The floral arrangement will be the same, purple and white callas and roses.

As both families have different cultures the bride and groom decided to have a buffet of strong first courses to choose. A salad bar, a seafood bar, cheese table and, of course, sweets table will complete a fabulous menu. The wedding cake will be a four floor design with purple, white and silver. There will be an open bar with different kind of drinks to choose.

A quartet, live band and DJ will be playing at the reception, starting at the cocktails port-ceremony. The groom has prepared a flashmob to surprise the bride. It’s really significant as the wedding proposal was with a flashmob as well. Let’s not forget crazy hour. Everybody will dance!

To conclude this beautiful and romantic wedding fireworks will seal the love story that is just starting. Guests will receive a lavender candle cup, a small bottle of wine and a picture frame signed by the newlyweds.
